

Application for Ministerial License

Spirit is Calling Mission Statement

Spirit is Calling's purpose is to provide a safe spiritual sanctuary where spirits in bodies will be offered spiritual guidance to connect with their own divine healing and creative energies and experience their God given abilities both in and out of the body.

Spirit is Calling Creed

We in the Spirit is Calling community believe that all spirits have an innate ability to connect with their own divine creativity and healing powers. Spirits freely create actions, and our actions create ways of being which expand our ability to know ourselves and the God of our own hearts. We understand that as co-creators of this universe we seek fulfillment in the complete expression of our spiritual freedom and the deepest knowing we are capable of. We rejoice in the discovery of our own true self and the experience that one has as a spirit in a body.
